One School One Book Feedback. Today, Wasco School wrapped up the One School One Book reading event. The book, Lemonade Wars, was read over two weeks at home and at school. Trivia questions were asked each day on the announcements and prizes were awarded. As a culminating activity, during yesterday's picnic, lemon infused water was provided to all of our students. The staff who organized this event would like your feedback. Please click on the link here to answer a two-question survey to share your feedback. Thank you!

Thurs., May 25 is the Wasco Annual PE/Health "FIELD DAY" all day! (Rain date is Friday, May 26.) Please read below for instructions and schedules:

- All students are asked to wear their gray Fit for Kids t-shirts.
- Dress comfortably and appropriately (D303 dress code applies). The forecast can change throughout the day so provide dress for both cool and warm weather.
- Sneakers MUST be worn-PE shoes are OK. No sandals, open-toe shoes, heels, crocs, etc.
- Students may bring water bottles, they must be marked with permanent marker with name and class.
- Sunscreen should be worn; parents should apply before school for students in the morning group. (K, 1, 2)
- Only teachers will be permitted in the Bucket Brigade area to help students. PTO photographers will be there to capture the moment. All others will remain away from the area for safety reasons.
- Visors or baseball caps can be worn. All students are in charge of their own belongings.
- A set of dry clothes left in backpacks might be a good idea, as students could get wet.
- Any questions, please contact Jean Williams, PE, Health and Wellness Instructor Jean.Williams@d303.org
